

Conquering the Thought Life

In the name of Jesus, I take authority over my thought life. Even though I live in the flesh, I am not carrying on my warfare according to the flesh and using mere human weapons. For the weapons of my warfare are not physical (weapons of flesh and blood), but they are mighty before God for the overthrow and destruction of strongholds. (2 Corinthians 10:3-5)

I refute arguments and theories and reasonings and every proud and lofty thing that sets itself up against the (true) knowledge of God; and I lead every thought and purpose away captive into the obedience of Christ, the Messiah, the Anointed one and His anointing. (2 Corinthians 10:5 AMP)

With my soul I will bless the Lord with every thought and purpose in life. My mind will not wander out of the presence of God. My life shall glorify the Father_ spirit, soul and body. I take no account of the evil done to me— I pay no attention to a suffered wrong. It holds no place in my thought life. I am ever ready to believe the best of every person. I gird up the loins of my mind, and I set my mind and keep it set on what is above— the higher things not on the things that are on the earth. I have the mind of Christ, so I only think the things of God. I think and meditate on His Word and because I do, my thoughts are pure. I walk after the things of the spirit, not after the things of the flesh, so my thoughts are spirit led. (Psalms 103:1-4, I Corinthians 13:4-8, Philippians 4:6-8)
